6) What are some of the key terms and conditions that I should be aware of?

Duty of Disclosure

- Pursuant to paragraph 5 of Schedule 9 of the Islamic Financial Services Act 2013, if you are applying for this Takaful wholly for purposes unrelated to your trade, business or profession, you have a duty to take reasonable care not to make any misrepresentation in answering the questions in the proposal form (or when you apply for this Takaful). You must answer the questions fully and accurately. Failure to have taken reasonable care in answering the questions may result in voidance of your contract of Takaful, refusal or reduction of your claim(s), change of the terms or termination of your contract of Takaful.
- The above duty of disclosure shall continue until the time your contract of takaful is entered into, varied or renewed with us.

Takaful Contribution Warranty

- Takaful Contribution due to the Company must be paid and received by the Company within sixty (60) days from the inception date of this Takaful Certificate or Endorsement/ renewal Takaful Certificate. If the condition is not complied with, this Takaful Certificate shall be automatically cancelled and the Company shall be entitled to the pro-rated Takaful Contribution for the period the Company provides the cover.

Amount to be Covered

- You must ensure that your property is covered at the appropriate amount taking into account the renovations made to your property.
- You may select to cover your property on Market Value or reinstatement value basis:
 - a) Market Value basis – we will pay the cost of repairing the damaged property less the amount for Wear and Tear and Depreciation.
 - b) Reinstatement value basis – we will pay the full cost of repairing the damaged property without any deductions being made for Wear and Tear and Depreciation, provided that the Sum Covered is adequate to cover the total cost of reinstating the property.
- If the amount covered on your property is less than the actual value at the time of loss, you are deemed to be responsible for the difference and bear a proportional share of the loss.
- Excesses, being the amount you have to bear before we indemnify you, are applicable for certain Perils, such as claims against overflowing of water tanks, windstorm, earthquake and flood.

Surplus

- The Company will charge a Surplus Administration Charge (SAC) of 50% of the gross distributable surplus arising from the Risk Fund at the end of the financial year. However, the Company may at its discretion and where appropriate charge the SAC for less than 50% of the gross distributable surplus.
- Any net distributable surplus arising (after deducting the SAC) from the Risk Fund will be allocated in full (100%) to the Takaful Participant. Upon Takaful Certificate expiry, if the amount due to Takaful Participants is less than RM10, the amount shall either be retained in the Risk Fund or donated to charity on behalf of the Takaful participants as an act of good deed. The threshold, method and time of settlement of the surplus distribution shall be defined in the Surplus Management Policy. The threshold is not applicable if the Takaful Participants provided their banking information to the Company.

7) What are the major exclusions under the Takaful Certificate?

The following exclusions are common to all Institute Cargo Clauses:

- a) wilful misconduct of Takaful Participant;
- b) ordinary leakage, ordinary loss in weight or volume, or ordinary wear and tear of the covered goods;
